ANT GONE ^{ANOUILH'S}

ANTIGONE by Jean Anouilh, directed by Bruce Coughran

Adapted from the ancient Greek tragedy by the great French dramatist, ANTIGONE was written in 1942, when the Nazis occupied France, and cemented Anouilh's reputation. The play revolves around the conflict between the idealist Antigone, Oedipus' daughter, and her uncle, Creon, who has become king. It is one of the great works of classical drama made modern, and one of the great stories of all time.
